Top 10 reasons to live on campus

1. Academics– Literally located across the street from your classes, library, and labs. Additionally, we have a quiet study lounges/computer lab located in our buildings.
2. Custom Contracts– Don't get stuck in a 1-year lease if you only need one for 10 months.
3. Community– With recreational programs, late night study sessions, and the friendly staff you have the best community around.
4. Friendships– Living with peers having shared experiences, makes it easy to make new friends.
5. Security– University Police/Public Safety Officers are located at the entrance of the building and available 24 hours a day.
6. Support– Are you stuck on an assignment or classmate to assist, chances are one lives right next door!
7. Staff– With staff available 24/7 there is always someone there no matter what problem you have.
8. Privacy– You can have your own room!
9. Convenience– Did we mention we are right next to all your classes? This means you don't have a commute! Your rooms are furnished rooms, we have lounges, study spaces, mail delivery and laundry on site.
10. Costs all inclusive– Cable, internet access, electric are all included in your housing bill so there are no surprises.

"The convenience of being so close to your classes, the library, and the gym is one of the biggest perks of living in the dorms. The best part about living here though, is the community of students and staff - whether you're studying hard, winding down with a game of pool, or freaking out over an upcoming exam, there are always people around who understand and support you"

Robert Situ, COM 2017

"The community and convenience of the residence halls made it the perfect choice for me- where else would you be able to come home from lab at any time of day/night AND run into some friends along the way?"

Ankuri Desai, COM 2016
Ankuri.Desai@downstate.edu

"Living in the residence halls gives you a sense of community and belonging. Your peers quickly become your best friends and you are always close to campus should anything arise."

Samuel Einbinder COM 2018
Samuel.Einbinder@downstate.edu

"There's something great about running into 4 of your classmates in the lobby at the end of a hard day and having that comfort of community and camaraderie."

Debashree Sengupta, COM 2017
Debashree.Sengupta@downstate.edu

"The Res Halls are very convenient and safe, which allows you to worry about less and focus more on school. Also, everyone here is really awesome and friendly, and there are always fun activities going on! "

See what our students have to say...

"Living on campus is a great way to allow yourself to submerge in the culture of Downstate. You are able to explore everything that the school has to offer without traveling too far. The residence halls are close to the different facilities so commuting from place to place is never a problem. It also provides a safe space for you to focus on your studies and make lifelong connections."

Christina Trinh, OTMS
Christina.Trinh@downstate.edu

"Time, time, time! Effective utilization of time is of essence in medical school, and living in the residential halls provided me so much convenience being near classes, lab, student activities, and the gym. The last thing you want to worry about is everyday commute, and the sweetest thing is to be able to walk to your bed when you need that sleep."

Julie Park, COM 2019
Sangmi.Julie.Park@downstate.edu

"I choose the Res Halls because of the sense of community, easy commute, and great people"

Jesse Sengillo, COM 17
Jesse.Sengillo@Downstate.edu

"I decided to live in the residence halls because it gave me a great opportunity to meet people from in my class. It has also been helpful to be around upperclassmen that can give advice during the difficult transition into medical school."

Richard Pongvitayapanu, COM 2017
Richard.Pongvitayapanu@Downstate.edu

" I live in the Res Halls for the convenience and the community! The programs are great and the staff is supportive and there if I need them."
