ZIPCAR: NOW AT DOWNSTATE
Zipcar, offers a convenient and environmentally friendly alternative to owning an automobile. FSA has partnered with Zipcar to bring cars-on-demand at Downstate. Two dedicated Zipcars, a Toyota Prius and a Honda CRV, are located in the State Garage on E34th Street. Low rates start at $11 per hour or $77 per day includes gas and insurance (plus tax)! Using your iPhone, Blackberry, or their simple on-line reservation system you can book Zipcars throughout the Zipcar network … from Mini Coopers to Pick-up Trucks, Mini vans to BMWs!

Downstate students are able to sign up for just $25/year! A savings of 66%. Even more cost effective when you share your rides for common local road-trips, errands and clinical rotations! Once a member of Zipcar, you’ll have access to the 2 exclusive SUNY Downstate Medical Center vehicles that live on campus as well as the company’s network of more than 6,000 vehicles throughout North America and the United Kingdom, and the 2000 cars living in New York alone.

Already a prior Zipcar Member? If you joined Zipcar before the Downstate program, you can re-register as a Downstate affiliate and receive the DMC rates (your annual membership will be pro-rated and any credit due will be added to your Zipcar account. Your use then gets included in this DMC program. Just log in to your Zipcar account and search/select the SUNY Downstate affiliate group.

Most students participate as Research Scholars after their 2nd or 3rd year of medical school. Students may work on basic, translational or applied biomedical research. Prior research experience may be advantageous but is not required. You select your preceptor and research project after your acceptance into the program. Students chosen as HHMI-NIH Research Scholars (about 40 are selected each year – we have had students chosen for this program) will work at the NIH for approximately one year, beginning July 15 and August 31. There is a stipend. Moving expenses and subsidized, on-campus housing is also part of the program. Application deadline January 10, 2010. For more information go to www.hhmi.org/cloister

| HHMI Research Training Fellowships for Medical Students (Medical Fellows Program - non-cloister) |
This permits students to spend one year conducting research at any school or non-profit research institution in the USA except the NIH. We have had students do this program, too! There is a stipend. The application deadline is January 11, 2010. For more information go to www.hhmi.org/medfellowships

The NIH CLINICAL RESEARCH PROGRAM is a one-year program at the NIH for medical students who have completed one year of clinical rotations (you spend the year in-between the third and fourth year at the NIH. 30 students per year are accepted into the program. There is a stipend. Read about the NIH Clinical Research Training Program at: http://www.nih.gov/training/crtp/crtp.html. Application available in October 1. Deadline January 15, 2010.

The COLLEGE OF MEDICINE announces the release of a revised Medical Specialty Preference Inventory, a self-assessment tool that measures your interests and likelihood of entering each of 16 specialties. For more information about and to take the MSPI-R, visit www.aamc.org/careersinmedicine and click “Log in.”
DORIS DUKE CLINICAL RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM
The Doris Duke Clinical Research Fellowship Program provides one-year fellowships to medical students, who have completed at least two or more years of medical school, to spend an extra year in one of 10 participating medical schools to receive both didactic and ‘hands-on’ mentored clinical research training, beginning July 2010. Fellows will receive stipends plus health insurance to spend a year conducting clinical research and receiving didactic training. We were pleased to have two students accepted into this program last year, and one is participating this year.

Additional program information including links to each participating school’s web site is at www.dddf.org/mr-crf.

Application deadline January 6, 2010.

THE SARNOFF FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM
This program offers medical students who have completed their second or third year of medical school to conduct research for one year. Prior research experience is not a prerequisite. The annual stipend is $27,500. The fellowship program’s website is www.SarnoffFoundation.org. Application deadline is January 7, 2010.

RESIDENCY INFORMATION RESOURCES

Careers In Medicine Web Site
Careers in Medicine, a career development program to assist you in choosing a specialty and plan for residency. To access Careers in Medicine, go to www.aamc.org/careersinmedicine and click on the “Login” button on the left menu bar. If you are new to the site, you will need to register. Click on the “New User” button on the bottom of the page.

Careers in Medicine has just released a new tool called Residency Preference Exercise. This exercise helps medical students identify criteria important to them in selecting a residency program and, using that information, searching for and rating programs on how well the program fits those criteria.

The Careers in Medicine newsletter, Choices, is now available from the Careers in Medicine website (http://www.aamc.org/students/cim/) The newsletter provides important information about residency and career choice topics. The October, 2009 newsletter spotlights Psychiatry.

HOW TO HELP IN THE EVENT OF A CITY-WIDE EMERGENCY. Join the Medical Reserve Corps/NYC
The New York City Dept. of Health is seeking health professionals students (medical, nursing, health related) to join their Medical Reserve Corps. In addition to free membership, Medical Reserve Corps members will receive training on how to assist New York City in the event of a national health emergency.

The Medical Reserve Corps/NYC has been created to mobilize health professionals who want to partner with the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene during a local health emergency that would require the City to open Points of Distribution clinics (PODs).

The goal of the MRC is to bring together the knowledge, expertise and skills of many different health professionals to address public health crises. Any licensed or certified health professional, who lives or works in New York City, can join the MRC. Please visit www.medicalreserve.org for more information and to register. You may also call 866-NYC-DOHI for more information or to register, and email any questions to healthmrc@health.nyc.gov.

WHERE TO GET DIFFERENT TYPES OF LETTERS

http://sls.downstate.edu/student_affairs/where_to_get_letters.html

Attendance: Letters simply certifying that you are in a student in school, or in good academic standing, etc. may be obtained directly from the Office of the Registrar. This also applies to applications for away (extramural) electives.

Scholarship Letters and School Letters of Recommendation for Special Programs: If you are applying for a scholarship, award, or special program (e.g. summer research, summer clinical, Alaska Health Service elective, NIH research year, etc.) and they require a letter of recommendation from the school, or a letter from the dean, or something more than attendance, then this goes through the Office of Student Affairs.

Write out your name, the nature of your request, the complete title and mailing address of where the letter should be sent, any deadline date, any items, which must be included in the letter, and any information which you would like included about activities, which you have been involved in during medical school. Allow 5 business days for completion.

Faculty Letters of Recommendation: If you are a MS 1 student applying for a summer program or a scholarship which requires a faculty letter of recommendation, remember your preceptors, small group discussion leaders, etc. that you have had in your courses may be able to write you a letter if you don’t feel you know your block director well enough. If you still feel you are having a problem or don’t have enough references, then drop off a copy of what you are applying for to the Office of Student Affairs along with a note describing your problem and I will provide advice on what you should do.

Jury Duty Letters: You can request a letter from the Office of Student Affairs requesting the court to postpone your dates of jury duty. We have no guarantee that the court will do so. Bring the original copy of your summons to the Office of Student Affairs. The court’s final decision prevails. You may need to serve during your vacation period.
